7. Area

- 7.1 The Shuai Jiao area (including a safety zone) is normally a matted 10m x 10m area (100 square metres). The sparring area is a minimum of 8m x 8m (64 square metres). The sparring area may be raised onto a platform (Lei Tai) to a maximum height of 1.2m.
- 7.2 Contestants enter the area when instructed to do so by the Executive Referee. When facing the Head table the contestant in blue should enter from the right and the contestant in red should enter from the left. On entering the area the contestants should salute the Head Table; then each other; and then prepare to engage each other on the Executive Referee's command.

8. A Match

- 8.1 The format for the match will be continuous sparring. During the match time will be stopped for: offences and warnings; uniform and equipment failure; and to seek medical advice.
- 8.2 Adult Male - a match will usually consist of two rounds of three minutes duration with a 30 second break between rounds. The time for the rounds may be reduced to two minutes; or at the discretion of the event organiser if there is insufficient time to run all matches.
- 8.3 Junior, Youth, Senior and Female - a match will consist of two rounds of two minutes duration with a 30 second break between rounds.

9. Scoring Techniques

- 9.1 Contestants may use the following techniques: Shuai Jiao (throwing, wrestling and standing grappling); Kuai Chiao (fast throwing – shoot techniques); Da Shuai (open hand techniques to throw/sweep/take down); Na Shuai (joint manipulation to throw/sweep/take down); Dien Shuai (pressure point manipulation to throw/sweep/take down). The contestant may make use of the opponent's jacket, belt or anatomical handles to execute their technique.

10. Illegal Techniques

- 10.1 The contestant must obey the Executive Referee's commands at all times. Contestants may not use the following techniques: strike the opponent with the head, digits, palm, fist, forearm, elbow, knee, shin or foot; bite, spit or gouge the opponent; attempt to dislocate the opponent's joints; attempt to break the opponent's bones; pull the opponent's hair; pull the opponent's trousers; pull the opponent down once thrown; continue to grapple on the area once the opponent has been thrown; stamp or stand on the opponent's foot; use the hand or forearm to cover the opponents face; and block continuously (to a count of 5 seconds) without attempting any techniques.
- 10.2 Coaches and Team Officials may only instruct the competitor when in their corner. Coaches and Team Officials may not give instruction during the match, (when the competitors are wrestling) unless the intention is to withdraw their competitor by 'throwing in the towel'. Any intervention by the Coach or Team Officials will result in the competitor's immediate disqualification.

11. Warnings and Penalties

- 11.1 The Executive Referee may give a private or public warning, or disqualify a contestant depending on the seriousness of a foul or offence. For the first warning there is no point penalty, for the second warning there is a one point penalty, and the third warning will result in a disqualification.

12. Points Scoring

One (1) Point

- Contestant remains standing whilst causing the opponent to touch down on the area with up to three limbs: hands or knees.
- Contestant throws/sweeps/takes down the opponent causing them to land on their back; and lands on top of the opponent's torso.
- Contestant forces the opponent step out of area using a technique.
- Opponent falls through their own imbalance.

Two (2) Points

- Contestant remains standing whilst causing the opponent to touch down on the area with: one hand and one knee; both hands; both elbows; and/or both knees simultaneously.
- Contestant remains standing whilst effectively sweeping or throwing the opponent causing the opponent to land on their head, side, elbows, chest or bottom.
- Contestant effectively throws the opponent causing the opponent to land on their side or back; and remains standing.

Three (3) Points

- Contestant effectively throws the opponent causing with speed and control causing them to turn through the air (a minimum of 180 degrees) and to land on their back; and they contestant remains standing and balanced after the throw is completed.

Non Scoring

- Both contestants fall simultaneously or leave the area without the use of recognised technique or acceptable countering or finishing technique.

13. Determining the Winner

- 13.1 Match: The winner is determined by the highest cumulative score at the end of the two rounds or by a contestant taking a nine (9) point lead.
- 13.2 In the event of a draw the winner will be determined by the number of warnings issued. If the number of warnings given are nil or equal then there will be an additional one minute extension with the winner determined by the first contestant to score.
- 13.3 In the event of a draw persisting the Executive Referee and Assistant Referees will meet with the Chief Referee to determine the winner based on the most technically active performance.

13.4 The winner may also be determined by the Executive Referee's decision based on:

- Technical Knock Out (TKO) based on determination that the contestant cannot or should not continue.
- Corner/Second 'throws in the towel'.
- Advice from Medical Staff.

14. Officials: Referees and Judges

14.1 Sparring Area Officials

- One (1) Executive Referee
- One (1) Assistant Referee

14.2 Head Table Officials

- One (1) Head Judge (usually the Chief Referee)
- One (1) Verification Judge
- One (1) Time Keeper
- One (1) Score Keeper
- One (1) Administrator

15. Responsibilities of the Officials

15.1 The Executive Referee is the official in charge of the Sparring Area.

15.2 The Assistant Referee is responsible for area control and to award points to be confirmed by the Executive Referee and validated by the Verification Judge.

15.3 The Verification Judge will be the deciding judge if there appears to be a discrepancy in the points awarded by the Executive and the Assistant Referees.

15.4 The Head Judge is responsible for the administration of the match and for the interpretation and implementation of the rules and regulations of the contest.

16. Protests

16.1 Any coach who disputes the results of a match must notify the Chief Referee within 15 minutes of the end of the match. The coach must then file a written request for arbitration with a fee stipulated by the organiser. On receipt of the protest the Chief Referee, the Arbitrator, the Referee and the Coach will review the evidence. The results of the arbitration will then be announced. If the decision is to uphold the results of the match the fee will be retained by the organiser. If the decision is to overturn the results of the match the fee will be returned to the coach.
